DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

- a. 5-HT₃ receptor antagonist (azasetron, granisetron, tropisetron, ramosetron, ondansetron, or an organic acid salt or inorganic acid salt thereof)
- b. gelatinizing agent (carrageenan, pectin, agar, alginic acid, sodium alginate...)
- c. carrageenan (kappa-carrageenan and/or iota-carrageenan)
- d. thickener (locust bean gum, gum Arabic, tragacanth, dextrin, dextran...)

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Specifically, Applicant is required to define a particular 5-HT₃ receptor antagonist, gelatinizing agent, carrageenan, and thickener from the examples provided in claims 3-6. Upon Applicant's election of species, the result must provide a single jellied pharmaceutical composition. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

2. The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner: claims 3-6. The following claim(s) are generic: 1-2 and 7-8.

3. The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: the claims recite several distinct compositions which lack a special technical feature because the compositions are obvious in view of Tyers et al (US 5,578,628) in further view of Ninomiya et al (US 5,932,235). Specifically, Tyers et al teach the use of a compound that inhibits 5 hydroxytryptamine for treating nausea (Column 2, Lines 22-32). Ninomiya et al teach a jellied medical composition for oral administration to subjects that experience difficulty swallowing such as the elderly (Column 14, Lines 61-63). Since patients undergoing chemotherapy are known to experience nausea as a side effect of the chemotherapy, and are also known to have difficulty swallowing (Eisbruch A et al., Int J Radiat Oncol Biol Phys 53(1):23-28. 2002), it would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art to combine the teachings of Tyers and Ninomiya to treat nausea in such patients.

4. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
